

Grow Your Own Healthy Food

River Valley Area Community Gardens

900 N Westmor Spring Green, WI 53588

(behind Ring Brothers Classic Auto)

Addresses:

P.O. Box 611 Spring Green WI 53588

Facebook: River Valley Area Community Garden Web page: www.rvacg.org

- * New gardeners and experienced gardeners are welcome. All ages welcome. Free garden sites for students.
- * Mentors are available for new and student gardeners.
- * Variety of plot sizes available.

Fees total...

- $40.00 per year per standard 400 sq ft (20 x 20) plot First time Community Gardeners $30
- $25.00 per year per half-standard 200 sq. ft. (10 x 20) plot. First time Community Gardeners $20
- $15.00 per year per miniature 100 sq. ft (10 x 10) plot. First time Community Gardeners $10

- * Reduced fees for lower income households through a sliding scale plot fee schedule or scholarships
- * Registration form on reverse side of flier. Plots are available on a first come first serve basis.
- * All fees and revenues go toward expenses of the garden including water, tilling, insurance, mulch, compost and tools for gardeners to use

 Water available on site to plot.

 Fall and Spring tilling provided. Tiller available for Gardener use all season.

- * Practice and teach organic and sustainable farming principles. NO inorganic pesticides, herbicides or other harsh chemicals are allowed.
- * Gardens opens to gardeners after preseason meeting in the spring.
- * Gardeners are encouraged to participate in RVACG Board meetings to promote development of the Gardens
- * Produce is also grown for the local food pantries.
- * Public is invited to stop and visit the Gardens throughout the season