Certification: Signing of this agreement constitutes acceptance of the terms and conditions outlined by RVACG. The gardener agrees to comply with the Gardening Guidelines and understands that failure to comply with these Guidelines may result in in termination of the right to garden. The gardener agrees to allow RVACG to use any photographs, interview, videotapes, film, other visual or auditory recordings, or any other medium of the gardener that the RVACG may create in connection with the gardener's participation in the garden, including on the internet. Liability Waiver, Release, Indemnification and Acknowledgements: The gardener understands that participation in the garden has a risk of injury, damage to personal property or death. The gardener agrees to assume the risk of harm even if the potential harm is caused by someone else. The gardener also agrees to waive any right to sue or attempt to collect money from the landowner, sponsor, board members, employees, volunteers or anyone acting on their behalf for any losses or damages resulting from death, injury or property damage to the gardener, anyone else, or any property, that occurs while the gardener is in the garden. The gardener gives up any right to sue or otherwise attempt to collect money from the RVACG or the Village of Spring Green arising out of any first aid, treatment or medical service, including the lack of such or timing of such, given in connection with participation in the garden. The gardener is not covered by or eligible for any insurance, health care, workers' compensation or any other benefits maintained by the aforementioned parties. The gardener is responsible for any damages or losses suffered by the sponsor or landowner that are caused by the gardener.
